

DEDICATION

To all Scientists, whose dedication to scientific truth of the universe has inspired much imagination and motivation in advancing mankind towards the discovery of infinite knowledge and wisdom belie in the existence of all beings!

Forward

This Little Book One is my first book written ever.

It is a hypothetical truth realized in 1993.

It provides a glimpse of the 1st creation of human race and civilization before the solar system was in place, and the creation of solar system and the beginning of human society we know today...

It predicts the sooner than expected ending of the solar system, and the next human civilization after the disintegration of the solar system

This Little Book One is written to enable men to have a comprehension and insight into the origin of the Earth, Mankind, and their relationship with the power of creation -- 'Elohim'.
